Sydney, NSW, April, 2006 – Single with Children is extending an invitation to all single parents to help celebrate its 10th anniversary on April 29th. Past and present members are all invited, as well as any other single parents, to the birthday celebrations which will be held at the Pennant Hills Community Hall, Yarrara Road, Pennant Hills starting at 7:30pm.

Single with Children, formerly known as the Single Parent Family Association was established in 1996. It is a non-profit group whose aim is improving the quality of life for single parents, both custodial and access, and their children. The weekly social activities provide an outlet where single parents can meet and relate to others in similar circumstances, while having fun.

“We provide an environment of understanding and companionship for single parents and their children, through the many social activities our members host,” said the president of Single with Children, Bruce Cole. “Activities for families include bowling, ice skating, bushwalks, picnics, beach days, movies, weekends away and many more. Adults’ functions are parties, restaurants, winery tours, comedy nights, weekends away etc. There is something for everyone.”

“We are a dynamic, self-directing community where new single parents can get their social life back together after the traumas of divorce or loss of the other parent. We currently have 300 active members, with about 1,000 children”.

“Many friendships and relationships have been formed within the group, between both adults and children. Our motto is ‘There are no strangers here... Only friends we haven’t met’ ” said Mr Cole.
